

Alan Sui

Practical and encouraging

Overview

Alan is an executive coach and management consultant who integrates his coaching skills into selling and service training. He incorporates both Western styles and Chinese features in his courses. His goal is to connect trainings with the participants' actual work situations to produce a practical and inspirational learning environment.

Location

China

Languages

Chinese
English

Specialties

Leadership development and coaching, communication, consultative selling, customer service.

Clients

Alan's clients span across multiple industries that include automotive, insurance, manufacturing, real estate, pharmaceuticals, technology and telecoms.

Training & Qualifications

- PCC, Professional Certified Coach (International Coaching Federation)