

André Ribeiro

Deep, real and pragmatic

Overview

André is an executive, mentor and team coach with more than 20 years of international business experience. He developed start-up businesses into multimillion-dollar e-commerce, travel and online marketing companies and served as the Director of Communications and Investor Relations at a Nasdaq-listed multinational media group.

His coaching style is described and experienced as deep, clear, real and pragmatic. He focuses on helping clients develop their careers, improve communication skills, build high-performing teams, and enhance their overall leadership presence. He also provides support in strategic management, energy management, and productivity, as well as promoting wellbeing to achieve sustainable success.

Location

Portugal

Languages

Portuguese (native)
Spanish
English

Specialties

Executive and leadership coaching, team coaching, start-up business development, international business.

Clients

In addition to corporate clients, André also works with founder managers, family businesses, family offices and international agencies. His corporate work covers a range of sectors including food & drink, financial services, oil & gas, pharmaceuticals, professional services, retail and technology.

Training & Qualifications

- MCC, Master Certified Coach (International Coaching Federation)
- EMCC Senior Practitioner (European Mentoring and Coaching Council)
- Master Trainer in Neuro Linguistics Programming (Institut Gestalt, Spain)
- Clean Coaching and Clean Language (Holigral, UK)
- Degree in Business Administration (FEUC, University of Coimbra, Portugal)
- Futures, Options and Other Financial Derivatives (London School of Economics, UK)