

Andrea Klincokova

Honoured to help others know and love themselves

Overview

Andrea is a transformation and empowerment coach who helps others lead with authenticity. She has worked with over 40 nationalities and draws on 25+ years of personal experience working in many different industries. Her goal is to help her clients shift their mindset to empower a new attitude of freedom and flexibility in their approach to life and business. She believes it's a privilege to help people with their personal and professional growth.

Since 2005 Andrea has designed and delivered local and international leadership programs at many levels. Previously she was a member of the ICF European leadership group and later held roles as both Vice President and President of ICF Czech Republic.

Location

UK

Languages

Czech-Slovak (native)
English

Specialties

Team building, mentorship, cross-cultural training, communication, leadership training and development.

Clients

Andrea partners with a variety of clients, including in the entertainment, manufacturing, technology, and telecoms industries.

Training & Qualifications

- Certified Co-Active Coach (Co-Active Training Institute)
- Certified NLP Practitioner (Erikson Coaching International, BC)
- Nonviolent Communication (Marshall Rosenberg)
- Leadership Development Program (The Coaches Training Institute, USA)