

Alla Kuznetsova

Optimistic, thoughtful and as ambitious as you are

Overview

Alla is a certified executive coach and recognized expert of leadership development in Russia. She has over 3,000 hours of individual and group coaching experience. Since 2005, Alla has been delivering projects for global corporations in Russia, Eastern Europe and Central Asia to develop leadership skills and enhance performance. Her goal is to help her clients thrive in their professional environment while living their best lives.

Prior to coaching Alla held multiple roles at Columbia University. She started as the Financial Coordinator for the Department of Paediatrics and then moved on to be the Administrative Director for the Genome Center where she managed over 60 employees.

Location

Azerbaijan

Languages

Russian (native)
English

Specialties

Organisational development, management, cross-cultural communication, conflict resolution, leadership program development and facilitation.

Clients

Alla works with a wide range of clients, including in the banking, entertainment, manufacturing, media, pharmaceutical and telecoms.

Training & Qualifications

- Certified Executive Coach (Lore International Institute, Switzerland)
- Certified user of MBTI, FIRO-B and 360
- Master of Arts, Linguistics (Moscow University, Russia)
- Master of Arts, Public Administration (Columbia University, USA)
- Master of Arts, Organizational Psychology and Leadership (Columbia University, USA)