

Bikundo Onyari

A self-proclaimed free spirit and passionate teacher

Overview

Bikundo is a self-described free spirit who expresses his passion through teaching, mentoring and creative writing. His experience traverses private- and public-sector organisations where he has developed and delivered programs impacting thousands of people both locally and internationally. He is valued for helping teams think strategically and engage in meaningful conversations that lead to change. Bikundo's mission is to lead with compassion and encourage individuals to reconnect with their innate wisdom to achieve a greater life experience.

Along with coaching, Bikundo has spent most of his career volunteering and serving the youth in his community. He has also developed several internal development programs across universities, manufacturing companies and disaster relief organisations.

Location

Kenya

Languages

English
Swahili

Specialties

Self-empowerment, goal mapping, capacity building, entrepreneurship, leading self, team performance, corporate training, creating meaningful conversations and strategic thinking.

Clients

Bikundo's clients span across multiple industries that include automotive, education, financial services, government, non-profit, professional services and shipping & logistics.

Training & Qualifications

- Certified Master Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) Coach
- Certified Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) Coach and Life Coach
- BA Social Entrepreneurship & Leadership Studies (International Institute of Global Leader, USA)
- Advanced Diploma Training & Teaching (The City and Guilds London Institute, UK)