

Dennis Kight

Encourages leaders to experiment for results that go beyond their expectations

Overview

Dennis has more than 25 years of global experience working with executives, business leaders, and high potential individuals in USA, the Middle East, Africa, Europe, South America, Asia and Australia. As an executive coach, he partners closely with clients, establishes an environment of trust, quickly dives deep and encourages experimentation with alternative ideas and approaches resulting in exceeding beyond the client's original goals and expectations.

Dennis's background is in technology, having held senior positions with Motorola, Cisco Systems and IBM. His business experience, combined with his portfolio of coaching frameworks and assessments, enables him to support senior leaders and executives in addressing a wide range of leadership challenges.

Location

UAE

Languages

English

Specialties

Executive coaching, effective communication, authentic leadership, executive presence, new leader assimilation, developing leaders/succession planning, influence, leading change, creating a high-performance culture.

Clients

Dennis works across multiple industries, including education, professional services, technology and telecoms.

Training & Qualifications

- PCC, Professional Certified Coach (International Coaching Federation)
- Certified Executive Coach (Center for Executive Coaching)
- Board Certified Coach
- ACE Coach Accelerator, Enhanced Practitioner
- Certified user of Profile XT Leadership Assessment, Genos Emotional Intelligence
- BS in Organisational Development (Brigham Young University, Hawaii, USA)
- Master's degree on Organisational Psychology (Columbia University, USA)