Ed Irons

An international citizen with a desire to know the world

Overview

Ed is a global executive coach and trainer with over 20 years of experience. His coaching style is warm, inviting and compassionate. As a lifelong learner, he is deeply rooted in Asian studies and has a passion for Chinese culture. Whether in training, executive coaching or academic research, his focus is to help others interact in and understand Asia. Ed makes learning fun and interesting and his broad experience allows him to relate topics in practical ways.

Early in his career, Ed worked in manufacturing sourcing for factories in central Taiwan, northern China and Hong Kong. He has also been a board member for the Hong Kong Chapter of the International Coaching Federation. Alongside coaching, he has a passion for producing and composing music.
