

Garrett Gatlin

A big dreamer – because it's all possible

Overview

Garrett is a leadership psychology and talent development expert on a mission to empower people to unlock their purpose and create a brighter tomorrow. He believes everyone can contribute at the highest levels, leverage their greatest gifts in the world, and thrive in a disrupted future. Garrett has spent the last 10+ years facilitating breakthrough experiences for over 100,000 individuals, as well as designing remarkable experiences to help people feel more alive.

As a content developer, Garrett leads our remarkable Studio team focused on original content, human experience design (HXD), and creative production for our immersive and transformational experiences.

Location

USA

Languages

English

Specialties

Leadership psychology; talent development; human experience design; breakthrough, immersive and transformational experiences.

Clients

Garrett works with clients in industries such as e-commerce, medical devices, retail, shipping & logistics and technology.

Training & Qualifications

- Accredited user of Ask Big Questions, Change Style Indicator, EQ-I and EQ 360, Leader Network Diagnostic and Leadership Circle Profile 360
- MA Organizational Communication and Leadership Development (University of Colorado, USA)
- BA Applied Communication and Leadership Studies (University of Colorado, USA)