

Jelena Radonjic

Masterfully blends personal, career and business coaching

Overview

Vivienne brings decades of experience as a leader and entrepreneur to her Jelena is an award-winning career fulfilment and leadership coach who helps aspiring professionals thrive in careers they love. Her powerful blend of personal and business coaching has brought transformational results to 300+ clients. Jelena's methodology is rooted in emotional intelligence and building self-awareness; she cares deeply about people reaching their true potential and being fulfilled in their work life.

Prior to coaching, Jelena spent over 25 years in international recruitment in the MBA/EMBA space. She started her career in Tokyo and then moved to London where she worked with top global companies and business schools helping them identify and reach top talent.

Location

UK

Languages

Serbian (native)
English
Japanese

Specialties

Leadership development, career progression and transition, executive coaching, consulting, public speaking, female leadership and DEI.

Clients

Jelena's diverse client portfolio includes industries in banking, e-commerce, financial services, professional services and technology.

Training & Qualifications

- PCC, Professional Coach Certification (International Coaching Federation)
- Certified CTI Co-Active Coach
- BA, Japanese and English Language & Literature (University of Belgrade, Serbia)
- EQ & Leadership Training (University of Oxford, UK)
- PWC Behavioural Interview Skills Training (University of London, UK)