

Laura Boscolo

Global corporate experience with a personal coaching touch

Overview

Laura has more than 20 years' experience in support activities both as an entrepreneur and as an executive to major global corporations such as Nokia and ENEL. She has broad international experience in human resources management, development, training, recruiting, leadership, tutoring and mentoring, as well as in organisational development and consulting.

Laura works as an executive coach and counsellor with global corporations to support organisations in achieving their targets through the development of leaders, key people and teams. Her coaching style is very supportive yet direct, creative and provocative. She is also EMBA Affiliate Professor of Leadership and Organisational Behaviour for ESCP Europe.

Location

Italy

Languages

Italian (native)

English

French

Specialties

Providing effective development coaching and training, strategic innovative thinking, successful strategic change and leadership programs linked with business and personal benefits.

Clients

Laura works with international clients in industries including automotive, engineering, financial services, media, pharmaceuticals, technology, telecoms and tourism.

Training & Qualifications

- Advanced Diploma of Executive Coaching (Academy of Executive Coaching)
- Certified Shadow Coach (School of Shadow Coaching)
- Diploma, Professional Counsellor (Centro Psicologia, Italy)
- NLP Practitioner (n-Exolution)
- Accredited user of Life Style Inventory (LSI), MBTI
- Global Colloquium on Participant-Centred Learning (Harvard Business School)
- BA Economics (Sapienza Università di Roma, Italy)