

Lisha Davidovits

Creates a dynamic interactive, and supportive space for growth

Overview

As a certified Success Coach, Lisha helps high achievers accelerate and further their success, strengthen their performance and relationships, and increase their happiness through methods that are dynamic, interactive, and supportive. With coaching, her clients expertly handle challenges and experience impactful results, fuelled by the deepening and furthering of their actionable insights, intentional mindset, positive intelligence, and emotional agility. What ensues is greater resilience, confidence, and courage...where their best selves and optimal potential thrive.

Lisha's professional impact is enhanced by over 20 years' experience in coaching, consulting and client relations roles for senior managers and executives in Fortune 500 companies. She integrates her experience as a Dale Carnegie trainer/coach and performance consultant, helping people communicate more effectively, strengthen interpersonal skills, and lead with courage and inspiration.

Location

USA

Languages

English

Specialties

Success coaching, mental fitness strengthening (like boot camp for the brain), stress management and resilience, communication and interpersonal relations.

Clients

Lisha works with clients, in particular high-achieving millennials, in a variety of industries, including consumer services, professional services, retail and technology.

Training & Qualifications

- PCC, Professional Certified Coach (International Coaching Federation)
- Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (Co-Active Training Institute)
- Certified Positive Intelligence Coach (Positive Intelligence)
- Dale Carnegie Trainer and Coach
- BA Psychology – Organisational Studies (University of California, Davis, USA)
- BA Rhetoric and Communication (University of California, Davis, USA)