

Marius Hansa

Escape room coach

Overview

After a successful corporate life in consulting and communication, Marius has over 30 years' experience as a coach and facilitator for multinational companies and their leaders. Marius's style is creative, inspiring and energetic – and he shows his passion for personal development. As an experienced partner at their side, Marius helps clients by asking the right questions, opening perspectives and encouraging action.

Prior to becoming an executive coach, Marius led different teams and business units in both national and international companies. He held roles such as Creative Director, Deputy Managing Director, Director of New Business and Managing Partner.

Marius also lectures in a 2-year coach training program and was a board member of the International Coaching Federation for over 10 years.

Location

Germany

Languages

Bilingual
German-English

Specialties

Values-based leadership, authenticity, leadership presence, personal effectiveness, conflict management and communication.

Clients

Marius works with Fortune 500 companies in industries as diverse as aerospace, automotive, consumer electronics, engineering, financial services, retail and telecoms.

Training & Qualifications

- Business Coach
- Stress Management Coach
- Gestalt Therapy
- Systemic Constellations facilitator
- Institute of Marketing & Communication
- Bachelor Communication Design (McKann-Erickson)