

Nancy Hughes

Values authenticity, direct and open communication, and fun

Overview

Nancy has over 20 years' experience in leadership development, including executive coaching, group facilitation and creating executive education programs for CEO-level executives. Her mission in life is to play a role in raising the level of consciousness on this planet and in organisations. Known for her open, honest, and flexible approach, she is passionate about challenging her clients to maximize their highest potential not only in business but also as human beings. Nancy's approach incorporates her strong values of authenticity, direct communication and fun to help raise self-awareness and the understanding of others while embracing the business and life challenges of her clients.

Nancy has lived and worked in USA, Asia, Europe and the Middle East. With an early career in consulting, marketing and sales, Nancy followed her passion for developing others, and particularly for coaching. She was one of the founding members of the ICF (International Coaching Federation) Singapore Chapter and was on the executive committee for 10 years, including a term as President.
