

Johnny Husen

Guiding leaders through transformation

Overview

Johnny is a senior executive coach with over 20 years of experience as a C-level leader, strategy consultant and people developer. His expertise centres on developing strategies for competitive positioning and operational success, whilst primarily focusing on cultivating leadership capabilities. This involves nurturing talents across teams and implementing effective leadership frameworks. With a rich background in turnaround management and innovation strategy, Johnny's goal is to foster transformative leadership that drives organisational growth and excellence.

Early in his career, Johnny served as an Operations Officer for the Danish Ministry of Defence. He went on to hold the role of Managing Director at multiple companies in the management consulting, technology and telecom industries.

Location

Denmark

Languages

Dutch (native)
English

Specialties

Resilient leadership, business development, innovation, management training, strategy development and execution.

Clients

Johnny serves a wide range of clients from industries including banking, consumer goods, pharmaceuticals, real estate, retail, technology and telecoms.

Training & Qualifications

- Executive Board Room Program, Insead Certified Training
- Executive Education Program (Harvard Business School, USA)
- Driving Strategic Innovation Program (IMD, Switzerland)
- Master of Arts, International Business Management (Henley Business School, Denmark)